

Dear parent,

I am just in the process of sorting out arrangements for continuing violin lessons in these difficult and different times and am trialling different online platforms.

In the meantime it would probably be a useful exercise to continue practice as normal and then record (mobile phone voice memo is fine) up to 10 minutes of playing to include a warm up exercise and two contrasting pieces to send me via email. I can then give feedback via email and suggestions for technical improvement and further playing. The time can also include demonstrating practice on certain passages (toffee chewing) if desired.

My email is jontrim@btinternet.com

I hope this is ok for you and I look forward to helping enabling continued learning in these strange and socially distant times.

Best wishes

Jon
